

The Great Commission

Matthew 28:16-20

Go make disciples.

I wonder...

- Why some disciples doubted it was the resurrected Jesus.
- How soon the disciples went out teaching and baptizing.
- What it means that Jesus is with us to the end of the age.

Anthony feels a little awkward. He's never been to church before, much less Sunday school. His parents have never taken him to church, though he thinks his mom went as a kid. They work a couple jobs to make ends meet so Anthony has spent a lot of time just hanging out. He's never minded. But he was happy when a kid his age moved to the apartment next door a few months ago. Emmett lives with his mom. Since she works two jobs too, the boys have lots of time to hang together.

Since Anthony and Emmett have become friends, Emmett invited Anthony to come to his church on Sunday morning. Emmett goes to church every Sunday with his mom. When she's working, some lady named Ruth picks him up. Anthony asked him last week why Emmett would go if he didn't have to when his mom was gone. Emmett had to think about it. "I guess I kind of like it. I don't know; it's just what I do on Sundays. Why don't you come along next week and check it out?"

So here he is, sitting in Sunday school with Emmett. The other kids seem to know what's going on, like they've heard the stories before. The songs were kind of weird, but everyone seems like they're glad he's here. So maybe he is too. Plus, they had pretty great snacks.
