If you would like to submit a question for "Ask the Pastor", Biblical, theological, church related, anything you have been dying to ask a pastor, you can hand me a note, ask me after church, send an e-mail, or sneak into the church after dark and anonymously slide a sealed envelope under my office door. If I answer your question in print, I will not include your name unless you explicitly ask me to.

Ask the Pastor

Recently while discussing Jesus' instructions to turn the other cheek or to give someone your shirt if they ask for your coat (Luke 6:27-38), I wondered about why Jesus would say something so strange. I can't imagine Jesus is telling us to take more abuse or be a bigger victim. I wondered if this would actually be a form of taking power back, refusing to be the victim. You don't have to wait three years for the passage to come up again, I found an article by Rev. Emily Heitzman (<https://musingsfromabricolage.wordpress.com/tag/the-giving-tree/>) that addresses some of these issues. This is her answer edited and paraphrased...

In Matthew's Gospel, when Jesus tells his disciples to turn the other cheek, he specifies which cheek he is talking about, saying: "if anyone strikes you on the right cheek, turn the other also." (Matthew 5:39)

Heitzman explains that in Jesus' time, the left hand was used for only unclean tasks. (Natural, every day, human bodily tasks, if you get my drift.) And so if you used your left hand for something other than those tasks, you basically would be seen as contaminating whatever or whomever you touched with your unclean hand. Thus, you would be excluded from religious gatherings and would have to do penance. (Sorry lefties.)

So, if you can't use your left hand, to hit someone's right cheek, you would have to use the back of your hand. Here's where it gets interesting... When a person hit someone else during Jesus' time with the back of their hand, they were not doing it to cause injury. Instead, the backhand was a way to insult and humiliate the other person. A backhand slap was not done to someone who was an equal. Slaves would be backhanded by masters; wives would be backhanded by husbands; children would be backhanded by parents.

The purpose of the backhand was to keep a person who was inferior in their place and to make them submit to their superior. So Jesus says that if someone backhands you, then turn the other cheek. Make them do it again.

The thing is, they can't. It's impossible for the person in power to use the backhand again. The recipient's nose is in the way. The only way to hit that person again would be with the front of the right hand or a fist. But the problem with this is that only equals fought with fists, so by striking the other cheek the striker would be acknowledging his victim's equality, thus shaming himself.

Theologian Walter Wink explains in his book Jesus and Nonviolence: "This act of defiance makes the master incapable of asserting his dominance in this relationship... By turning the cheek, the "inferior" is saying: "I'm a human being, just like you. I refuse to be humiliated any longer. I am your equal. I am a child of God. I won't take it anymore."

The instruction to "turn the other cheek" is not Jesus saying that we should roll over and allow people to abuse or take advantage of us. Jesus is saying quite the opposite. He is telling us to stand up to the bully. He is calling us to holy resistance.

Dear Kind and Generous Friends,

We wanted to take this opportunity to thank you for donating your time and effort to ring the bell at Miller's Market for the Salvation Army for the year 2024. Thanks to you and your organization, you alone raised $300.12 for that day. The money collected will go to help the people of Ottawa County and we couldn't do it without your help. So, thank you again and hopefully we can count on your donation of time again in 2025.

SPRING FORWARD
MARCH 9, 2025

In Spite of the Weather.....Valentine Bake Sale a Huge Success! Many Thanks to All our Donors, Bakers and to the Eager St. John Buyers

Our WELCA Bake Sale for 2025 was another huge success, with many thanks to our St. John Family.. Once again we applied for a grant from the Thrivent Acton Team. We were blessed that most of our supplies for baking were donated or they were purchased with these grant dollars. Our expenses were minimal.

On Friday, February 7, twelve (12) ladies gathered in the church kitchen to bake. These ladies were using four ovens -- with lots of buzzers ringing!!!!!! From 9 a.m. until 1:15 p.m. we baked 48 DOZEN cookies and fifteen pies. In addition to the baking, individual servings were boxed up of three large pans of lasagna, two pans of mostaccioli and three pans of macaroni and cheese (which had been previously baked on Thursday by a couple ladies). This entire process created a lot of great socializing and developed 'camaraderie among the group'. After the work was complete, lunch was served and fellowship was enjoyed by all.

In addition to the baking, others brought in many varieties of specialty breads (Hawaiian, zucchini, banana, blueberry, apricot, etc., etc., etc.), cheesecake, bars, brownies, muffins and a variety of candies. We had a total of 26 loaves (various sizes) of bread. We had three eight-foot tables of delicious goodies for sale.

The true success of the bake sale was having so many helpful bakers, donors and purchasers. It was absolutely overwhelming to have such generous members of St. John, and to see the eagerness of the buyers. St. John is truly a wonderful and very giving congregational family. Many thanks to each and every one of you!!!!

In spite of the inclement weather, by the close of the bake sale we had SOLD OUT of EVERYTHING. Many thanks to all for your support and generosity!

Our profits will be shared with a number of local charities, including Helping Hands of St. Louis, Salem Lutheran Church, the LIGHT Neighborhood Pantry at Elliston Zion and others. The balance will be deposited into the WELCA treasury.

Again, thanks to all for your support.

Bold Women's Day—observed the first Sunday of March – celebrates all Lutheran women who have acted or are acting boldly on their faith in Jesus Christ. Some women are bold in their unceasing prayers. Other women are bold in their service to those in need. Still other women are bold in their advocacy or through their hospitality. Whether we live out our bold story of faith in the workplace, family home or community, our faith compels us to make a difference in the lives of others. It's all about living out our baptismal call, about being a disciple of Christ. Are you bold?

The "Blanket Ladies" gather to make quilts on Tuesday mornings at 9:00 am.

They enjoy a time of fun, fellowship and coffee!

Come join us! You only need to know how to tie a knot!

Bed sheets are needed for quilt backings.

Donations may be left in the box outside the church office.

Meet Matthew!

Director of Music and Worship at St. Martin's, Archbold

More about Matthew!

“As you can hear, St. Martin's Chancel Choir and congregation sings God is Truly Present in resounding 4-part harmony which reflects the radiant text. March 2nd marks the Transfiguration of Our Lord – another ‘radiant’ moment in the Gospel story. Here, Jesus shines brightly, the disciples hear God's voice speak “This is my Son, my Chosen; listen to him!” and they respond in an astonished silence. With this hymn, we at St. Martin's invite you to witness that shining Savior, listen for God's voice in your life, and find moments for quiet reflection. ”

MARCH KIDS

JOURNEY TO THE CROSS

Starting on Ash Wednesday, the church traditionally observes Lent, a 40-day period of repentance and reflection. As we prepare for Easter, families can focus on Jesus' life and ministry, culminating in his death and resurrection.

Use this Lenten Bible Reading Plan, along with a kid-friendly Bible version, for family devotions. With older kids, you can expand the readings to the surrounding paragraph or chapter. Discuss how each reference to Christ ties into God's plan of salvation.

Springing to LIFE

New life defines the season of spring. Make this Easter craft that symbolizes rebirth.

What you need:

- Brown paper lunch bag
- Scissors
- Pencil
- Glue stick
- Jellybeans

What you do:

1. From the bag's bottom, cut two 2-inch circles. Set aside.
2. From the sides, cut two 10-inch circles.
3. Draw a thin spiral on each large circle and cut along the lines. Crinkle spirals gently.
4. Starting at the center, wrap one spiral into a nest. Glue every few inches to hold it.
5. Glue one small circle to the bottom of the nest.
6. Repeat with the other spiral. Fill nests with jellybeans and give to a friend!

Deacon Sherry Krieger reflects on the recent 2025 Lutheran Ethicists' Network Gathering.

Grace...Bountifully given to us...ALL of us

We Lutheran Christians know this as our Lutheran credo of Justification by Grace through Faith that was handed down to us through our faithful pastors, Sunday School Teachers, parents and ancestors who took seriously the words and works of a priest who lived more than 500 years ago, Martin Luther. Luther's theology helped move us into a new way of understanding God's ultimate love, salvation, and work among us as most fully known through the life, death and resurrection of God's son Jesus Christ...We are loved because of Jesus (John 3:16), we are saved because of Jesus (Romans 3:22-26), God's Holy Spirit is moving among us because of Jesus (Acts 1:8).

But what does this knowledge, understanding and faith stance mean for us in everyday life? What does it do to and for our behaviors as we live each day interacting with others?

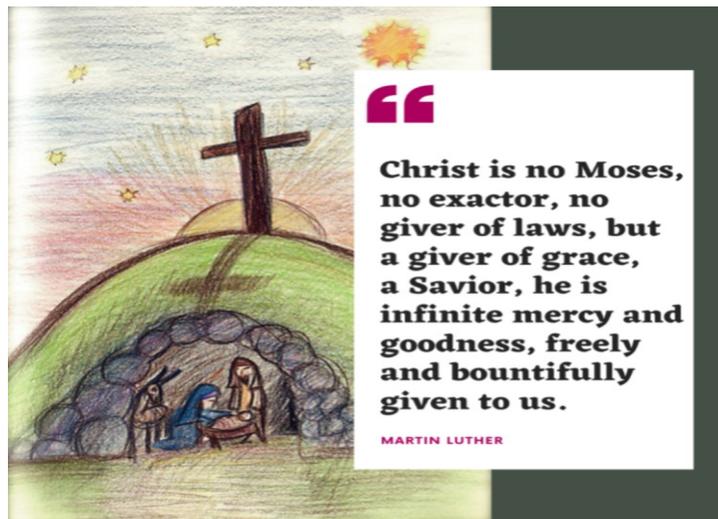

As you may be aware, we are living in some challenging times. Although not new to humanity, it may seem like division, disconnect and polarization are ramping up and changing some behaviors – ours and other people's – as we seek to figure out how best to live in these days of unrest.

As synod staff we are hearing and experiencing more than ever the frustrations, challenges and deep concern expressed in parishes throughout Northwest Ohio, from leaders, members, seekers and community stakeholders who are fearful and sensing an inability and sometimes unwillingness to speak to one another across deep divisions regarding urgent social and political issues. What do we do? What can we do?

I had the privilege of attending the 2025 Lutheran Ethicists' Network Gathering earlier this month on Polarization: Discerning a Path Forward. The following are opportunities this group practiced that allowed us to "do" something different under God's grace given freely in Jesus.

REFLECT and PRAY

1. Reflect on these days of rapid communication and media saturation, and how this affects you and the state of your own spirit right now. How might the themes of rest, release, and consolation from God received in nightly prayer be a form of response to that frenzy?
2. Bring to your attention someone with whom your relationship has been especially strained because of polarized political opinions, and with whom you wish to receive an opening for communication and/or healing.
3. Raise this person, your relationship and your concerns to God, asking for grace, wisdom, and open hearts, that through patience and gentleness like Jesus, God's love, mercy and forgiveness might enter into this situation for you both.

In a modified Service of Night Prayer, Pr. Ole Schenk provided our group with this confession. How might you use it in your community? Share it with your pastoral leader, Sunday school teacher, Bible study group, or gather some friends together.

Let us confess our sin in the presence of God and one another. With our weight of sin, let us also bring up to God our longings for open and new paths of relationship.

Holy and gracious God, I confess that I have sinned against you this day, this week, this year. Some of the sin I carry is only my own: the thought, word and deed that cuts me off from you and from my neighbor. Other sin I suffer: it has been done to me, echoes still within me, and I carry its pain further. In the name of Jesus Christ, I turn to you: I ask you to forgive and heal me For those ones I bring in petition before you now, I ask for an open space: for them for me, and for the sake of your truth.

By the mercy of God, You are, we are, united with Jesus Christ in whose saving death we are forgiven. In the tender compassion of God, your petitions are known and received. By the breath of the Holy Spirit, Receive rest in the peace of Christ.
